

Amrop

PRESS RELEASE

July 12, 2012, Bratislava

Quality Award for Slovakia received at Global Conference of Amrop

At the end of June an annual global conference of Amrop, one of the leading global Executive Search organizations, took place in Vietnam. It is a traditional platform for strengthening cooperation and sharing best practices amongst professionals of the geographically largest network present today in 57 countries around the world. The main theme was Partnership in Action with special attention paid to sustainable growth strategy of Amrop. Slovakia was represented by Igor Šulík who took active part in various sector and regional practices.

One of the main items on the agenda was election of Amrop Board that will be chaired for additional two years by Ulrich Dade from Germany. From the geographical coverage aspect the important news was introduction of new member company that from beginning of July represents Amrop in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland. "Our new London office builds on the highest quality, professionalism, seniority and entrepreneurship. Thanks to its local as well as global approach it considerably strengthens position of Amrop on the second biggest Executive Search market in the world especially in sectors Consumer & Retail, Media, Telecommunications, Technology, Industrial/Energy, Financial Services, Professional Services and Sport," said Igor Šulík. In this regard it is also positive information that Amrop has strengthened its presence in Serbia and Croatia.

The global conference was concluded by presenting annual Amrop Awards – 2011 Anthony Saxton Award went again to Günther Tengel, Managing Partner of Amrop Jenewein in Austria and Chairman CEE who also received Chairman Award for continuous outstanding contribution to Executive Search industry and Amrop brand especially. As part of the ceremony also Quality Awards were presented and for the highest level of services this year the awards were received by offices from Austria, France, Sweden, Netherlands, Turkey and Slovakia. "Receiving the Quality Award it is an honor and obligation. From every item of the conference it is clear that Amrop focuses on achieving its strategic goals and takes all necessary steps to strengthen its position of the largest Executive Search global network providing top quality services. Jenewein Group to which the local Amrop belongs also builds on this approach," added Martin Krekáč, Senior Partner of Amrop and Chairman of Jenewein Group.

For more information:

Igor Šulík, Managing Partner, Amrop Slovakia – Context Driven Executive Search
Štefanovičova 12, 811 04 Bratislava, Slovak Republic
T/F +421 2 5443 6001-4, E slovakia@amrop.sk, W <http://www.amrop.sk/en>

Amrop Slovakia is a consulting company with more than twenty-year history on the Slovak and Central European market. It is a leader in providing solutions in the area of Executive Search, Board Advisory Services, and Management Audit & Human Capital Consulting. As part of the geographically largest network of Executive Search companies in the world and member of The Association of Executive Search Consultants (AESC) – the most respected global association for Retained Executive Search and Leadership consulting firms; it provides the highest level of services in this area.

Amrop

Amrop Slovakia belongs to the portfolio of strategic holding company Jenewein Group.

Through the initiative HR for children. THANK YOU! we support Children's safety line.