

CEC Group – Public Affairs Agency and Network

CEC Group is a leading company active in public affairs. In the Visegrad Group countries (PL – HU – CZ – SK) the Slovak team is actively engaged also within CEC Group and it provides professional consultancy to a large number of American and European multinational companies actively engaged in a number of sectors in their entry, advancing of interests and successful operation in the Central European Region. It focuses primarily on strategic sectors including defense, energy, consumer protection, FMCG and pharmaceutical sector, financial sector (including the largest banks and private equity companies), IT technologies, internet etc. The services portfolio constitutes a comprehensive set from qualitative and quantitative analyses, through intelligence gathering, strategic assessment to representation of clients' interests. CEC Group provides consultancy also in privatization projects and mergers and acquisitions in state-regulated industry sectors and consultancy in relations with government institutions and in media relations.