

EPPP – European Public Policy Partnership

EPPP is a private think-tank carrying out a portfolio of activities exclusively on the basis of expert principles and standards. It operates as the initiator of solutions primarily in the area of economic competitiveness with direct influence on the whole society. EPPP develops activities in the area of innovative solutions in order to increase the value of the human capital, capacity building, provides changes of higher education environment, implements good corporate governance principles (Governance Model), sets up systems of lifelong learning and development of globalized labour market. On the basis of good experience gained during several years of active operation in the Central European Region it also disseminates knowledge and carries out activities in the area of transfer of best practice in a field of public policies to countries with underdeveloped economy and lagging behind regions but with high development potential. EPPP is part of strategic holding company – JENEWEIN GROUP.