

EPPP – European Public Policy Partnership

EPPP is a private think-tank carrying out a portfolio of activities exclusively on the basis of expert principles and standards. It operates as initiator of solutions primarily in the area competitiveness of economy with direct influence on the whole society. EPPP develops activities in the area of innovative solutions in order to increase the value of human capital, reform of higher education system, implementation of good corporate governance principles (Governance Model), development of globalized labour market, development of systems of lifelong learning and advisory and new possibilities for the use of public private partnerships. On the basis of good experience gained during several years of active operation in the Central European region it also carries out activities in the area of transfer of best practice in the field of public policies to countries with developing market economies. EPPP is part of strategic holding company – JENEWEIN GROUP.