

“Drops of support“ for children and youth falling from sky

This year's Grand Prix Jenewein taking place at TJ Karpatia show jumping ground in Bratislava-Záhorská Bystrica was in spite of rain and mud a successful event. The general partner of a three day event - the consulting group AJG - Amrop Jenewein Group was supported by two main partners Bank Vontobel and Jeep and three partners: Miele,

Martin Novotný (AJG), Eva Dzurindová a Martin Krekác (AJG)

Slovenská pošta and Taurito. Similarly as in previous years, the event was held under the auspices of the PM Mikuláš Dzurinda. The main sport event was the 17th year of Karpatia Prize, 32nd Bratislava's Championship and 8th year of Grand Prix Jenewein.

Due to unfavorable weather conditions, the technical level and number of participants were reduced which however did not reduce the will to compete before the start of the show jump season. The first two places in the main competition were secured by Mr. František Pál from Tenzona Club in Bratislava.

The real fun started when the tandem competition of celebrities in Fun Radio Ride & Drive Competition for the Jeep Prize was on. In the exciting competition for the shortest time and lowest number of penalty points and in battle with mud the winner was Mr. Ivan Štefanec, the Government Plenipotentiary for Introduction of Euro who competed together with Jana Jáchymová on the horse Nero. Concurrently with the finish of the sport event, the Beneficial Garden Party to support the Children's Help Link at the Slovak Committee of UNICEF ended. The guests by taking the opportunity to purchase tombola tickets supported this project which has been at the phone number: 0800 500 500 already for ten years assisting children and youth to find solid soil in crisis situations.

Maybe because of attractive tombola prizes for which we thank to all the donors but for sure because of the social responsibility and willingness to help others Mrs. Eva Dzurindová,

The cheque to support the Children's Help Link and the joy of Eva Dzurindová the Director of Children's Help Link received the financial contribution of 73 200 Sk to support these activities.
