Holding company JENEWEIN GROUP as the holder of innovative and pioneering ideas in Slovakia supports the game of kings. Chess was chosen to be the pillar of corporate identity and a philosophy of chess as a strategy for the development of consulting companies in its portfolio (AMROP HEVER, FIPRA, AJG Consulting and EPPP). For this reason, it became a general partner and co-organizer of Slovak and Czech top managers' chess team meeting. Under the title Jenewein Chess Match wants the company each year broker a beauty and elegance of the chess game to the wide public. The first of a series of traditional events took place on October 10 and 11, 2008 in Bratislava Art Hotel William and Central Passage. This social prestigious event has been of a really high quality, as JENEWEIN GROUP invited to Slovakia apart from excellent teams also the legend of chess heaven - the twelfth world champion and Russian grandmaster Anatolij Karpov, who awarded a challenge trophy to the winning Slovak team, and played in front of more than two hundred invited guests exhibition match with the Slovak grandmaster Sergej Movsesjan.
