The 2005 CEE Executive Search Forum

Talkshow of prominent analyst of global Executive Search consulting Joseph Daniel McCool, Vice-President and Editor-in-Chief of Executive Recruiter News at Kennedy Information Inc., USA

7th April 2005

Next week Bratislava, the capital of Slovakia, will host the The 2005 CEE Executive Search Forum – the prestigious event, first of its kind in Slovakia. The forum will be a part of CEE conference of Managing Partners of member companies of The Amrop Hever Group (TAHG), the largest global network of Executive Search companies.

The 2005 CEE TAHG Conference, meeting of countries of CEE region, will take place in Bratislava on 7th and 8th April on the occasion of 15th anniversary of foundation of a Human Capital consulting company Jenewein & Partners, the member of TAHG in Slovakia, and at the same time fifteen years of existence of Executive Search consulting in Slovakia. The event which will be attended by the President of TAHG Mr. Luis Conde from Spain, Vice-President TAHG for Europe, Middle East and Africa Mr. Ulrich Dade from Germany, the director of AESC (Association of Executive Search Consultants) for Europe Mr. Daniel B. Hall and other invited guests from almost twenty countries will be organized under the heading: Don't Stop – Go East! „Within the practice and sector groups at the conference, among other topics, the new methods and rules for executive search and succession planning for human capital will be discussed. The understanding of these trends and acquiring of new knowledge and skills is the key element of successful performance of Executive Search companies and their consulting teams as strategic partners in the twenty first century” said Mr. Martin Novotný, Co-Founder and Chairman of AJG, the organizer and host of the event.

Within a two-day program of the conference focused on latest trends, new opportunities and exchange of professional experience in Executive Search, The 2005 CEE Executive Search Forum will take place on Thursday, 7 April 2005 in Bratislava's Radisson SAS Carlton Hotel. This prestigious event is besides the participants from TAHG aimed for local and international professionals in the fields of strategic management and human capital, HR specialists and other invited guests and journalists. The forum is organized under the auspices of the Prime Minister of SR Mr. Mikuláš Dzurinda and with confirmed participation of Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Finance Mr. Ivan Mikloš.

The highlight of The 2005 CEE Executive Search Forum will be a talkshow of a leading world analyst of global Executive Search Mr. Joseph Daniel McCool, Vice-President and Editor-in-Chief of Executive Recruiter News at Kennedy Information Inc., in the USA. Mr. J. D. McCool will speak at the forum on the topic The End of Executive Search Consulting and Management Succession As We Know It. Moderated interactive discussion will focus on the facts that few people realize nowadays. That is that not only Executive Search companies but also managers on the side of the clients have to keep up with latest standards, priorities, expectations and changes at global and local markets. „ Today we see many non-functioning elements in replacements of executives in different countries of the world and Slovakia is not much different in this respect. This is the reason why we will devote this forum in Bratislava to human capital issues that should be dealt with in individual companies before they start planning changes in executive posts and also about the added value which can be brought into this process by professional Executive Search consultants,“ said Mr. J. D. McCool a few days before his arrival to Slovakia. This renowned professional will also lead professional development workshops for the closed group of participants of CEE TAHG conference including the AJG Partners and Consultants in Bratislava.

The whole event will culminate with a Teenage Party in Cafe Reduta in Bratislava, where the invited prominent guests, clients and friends will celebrate the 15th Birthday of Amrop Jenewein Group.
