

Jenewein Group

Jenewein Group is a premier Czech-Slovak Consulting Group, which has been proudly and successfully executing the strategic vision of our founder Dr. Jean-François Jenewein.

Through our offices in Prague and Bratislava and international presence in Brussels and London we manage to keep a finger on the pulse of latest developments and thus offer proven experience combined with innovative expertise in and beyond the central European region.

Since 1990 we have gradually earned a reputation of a trusted and experienced partner who delivers Results-Driven Solutions and Strategies in all key practice areas.

In current everchanging business environment our Strategic Management Consulting practice delivers to our partners and clients in both private and public sectors innovative and tailor-made solutions that exceed their expectations.

Our time-tested Executive Search & Leadership Consulting practice specializes in identifying, attracting and developing leaders who have the skills and experience necessary to succeed, are able to define and advance corporate strategy, and simply fit in with the organizational structure and corporate culture.

Our unrivaled Public Affairs & Government Relations practice helps our clients successfully maneuver and protect their interests through political challenges and legislative opportunities regardless of the political cycles.

The Prague office of Jenewein Group is the main contact point for Czech and foreign clients to implement Czech-Slovak and international projects. In Slovakia consulting firms Amrop Slovakia and Fipra Slovakia are its portfolio companies.
