

Enhancing Managers' Mobility and Employability

– Towards a Genuine European Labour Market -

Vienna, May 5, 2006

Conference Programme

9.00

Registration

9.30

INTRODUCTION

Welcome address

President of CEC
Mr. Paul Jankowitsch, President of WdF

10.00

The initiatives of the European Commission to support workers' mobility and the example of EURES

European Commission

Mr. Johan Ten Geuzendam, Head of Unit, Employment services and mobility, DG Employment, Social Affairs & Equal Opportunities

10.30

Education and Training for a European Labour Market

Jenewein Partner

Mag. Günther Tengel, Managing Partner Jenewein & Partner
„Mobility – a key success factor towards leadership development“

EURASHE

Mr. Stefan Delplace, Secretary General of EURASHE (European Association of Institutions in Higher Education): Mobility in Higher Education

COFFEE BREAK

11.30

CASE STUDIES: Company examples and best practices

Cranfield School of Management

Dr. Michael Dickmann, Director Centre for Research into the Management of Expatriation: Understanding International Mobility

Philips Austria

Mr. Mag. Markus Posch, Vice-President: Mobility and Career Support

TOTAL

Mr. Jacques Meric: Job evaluation and mobility policy

13.00

LUNCH

14.30

CASE STUDIES: National social partners initiatives to promote Lifelong Learning, Employability and Mobility

France

Mr. Claude Courty, National Secretary, CFE-CGC: Managers' mobility

Germany

Mr. Stephan Gilow, lawyer: Mobility in the frame of the demographic development in Germany

Croatia

Mr. Esad Čolakovic, President of the CROMA Business Academy

Spain

Mr. Hernández Gordillo, Deputy Director General, National Institute for Qualifications (INCUAL) and Mr. Alvaro Larramendi, Lawyer: Creating a specific professional qualification for managerial staff, the Spanish experience

16.30

Discussion and conclusions

17.00

End of Meeting

Venue: Haus der Industrie, Schwarzenbergplatz 4, 1031 Vienna, Austria

Organiser: CEC, Rue de la Loi 81a, 1040 Brussels, Belgium

Phone: +32 2 420 10 51, Fax: +32 2 420 12 92